WHEREAS, the Expeditionary Learning Board of Cooperative Educational Services ("The Board") is a public entity that provides educational services to children in the Rocky Mountain School of Expeditionary Learning ("RMSEL"); and

WHEREAS, Colorado voters in November will be asked to approve new taxes to support public education, and

WHEREAS, these new tax revenues would provide significant resources needed by Colorado school districts to implement existing and proposed education reforms, and

WHEREAS, the Expeditionary Learning BOCES Board recognizes that the Board’s district membership and members of the BOCES’ school community have diverse opinions and different levels of understanding about this proposed tax proposal,

Now, therefore, be it resolved by the Board that while it supports the need for better funding of our schools, it will decline to take an official stance on the proposal but encourages members of the RMSEL community to understand the ballot proposal and to hear and to express the different views on all aspects and possible implications of the ballot proposal.

By their signatures, the undersigned member(s) evidence their approval of the above proceedings as of the date last above written.
